2.0 RATIONALE

The Hospitality Industry is growing rapidly in this country partly due to the stable political climate and also to the increase in the number of tourists visiting the country. The demand has also brought about the realisation for quality food, especially those alacate menus prepared professionally by qualified personnel.

And with this growth there has been an increase in the demand of cookery products around the country. In addition, people have come to realise the importance of having different kitchen items on the menu. This calls for professionalism and creativity in the way kitchen items are managed, which requires personnel who are able to meet this new demand in the provision of these products and services.

This programme has been designed to assist in the development of skills vital to address the needs to develop skilled kitchen personnel.
